In New Orleans prominent men who have just been there say the attitude of the Democrats is absolutely quiet and orderly; they await in confidence the justice of the North.

Let them have patience and confidence. The North, the Northern Republican party, is fast awakening to a comprehension of the situation. This is not a matter in which the Democruts can usefully act. The initiative does not belong to them; their part is to wait in patience, in absolute order and quiet. The chief Juty of the crisis falls upon the Republican masses. They are honest and sensible, and they will not tolerate wrong or trickery, or even the appearance of wrong, in this matter. It is for them to demand, and we believe they will demand, in publie meetings, not only or merely an shall assure them and their Democratic neighbors and friends that there is no taint of suspicion about it. Unless we greatly mistake the temper and attitude of the Republican masses they will make themselves heard and their influence felt to this end very soon .-As we write we have before us a private letter from one of the leading Republicans of Massachusetts, who writes "What think you of the result of the election? I hope Tilden will get it as the matter stands." That is what to-day nine out of ten of the honest Republicans think; and we say to the Republican leaders, plainly, that they have become within the last week objects of suspicion to their own party singing cheerfully over his work. and the public, equally with the reand character they are involved; and that unless they at once and conspicu- labor! ously condemn and oppose themselves o all trickery and to everything which bears even the faintest odor of intended

An Interesting Interview Between the Next President and an Editor. President-elect Tilden, in our recent nterview with him, impressed us with his great good sense, his perfect faith in the final triumph of the right, his con-fidence in the honesty and patriotism of the great body of the people-Democrats and Republicans, who; he says, $4 10. will ever rally to the Union when it is in real danger—and most favorably with his quiet, and perfect command over himself, and his evident sincere devotion to his country and best in-terests of its whole people.
